Studying related and different system languages is one of the urgent problems of modern linguistic science. In connection with this, an important interest presents the study of the native language in comparison with contrast languages. Nowadays, market industry based on strong and unremitting competence demands to bring up people who business person, having creative thought, forming national spirit, in addition, thinking individually solving problems in any difficult situations. Spirit, intelligence and language are closely connected with one another. Human being has to learn mother tongue as well as foreign languages to form their individual intelligence. It is known that there are two means to study mother tongue and foreign languages essential conceptual bases at secondary school education: textbook and dictionaries.

Hundreds of dictionaries have been created in different fields until now (from kindergarten to university), even near to thirty dictionaries for Russian schools but there is only “Orthography dictionary” for Uzbek schools. It is so important to create explanation dictionary, synonymic words, antonymic words dictionaries, degree words, old words dictionaries, phrases, dialects, homonyms, pronunciation words dictionaries for children.

It is impossible to improve creative thinking unless essential dictionaries for children are created. Current textbooks are not sufficient to improve oral and writing speech.[1.P.5] Therefore, according to these thoughts we decide to create a useful dictionary for children. The dictionary includes the names of animals in English, Russian and Uzbek languages; they will be given with pictures.

Moreover, this dictionary will take valuable proverbs, phrases that used the names of animals in English and their translations, equivalents into Russian and Uzbek languages. Studying of pet names in English, Russian and Uzbek languages is undertaken for the first time. In addition, we can learn the names of animals by dividing them into groups. For example, Home animals, wild animals, mammals, aquatic animals, reptiles, rodents and others.
